

First year students complete what is known as the Arts CORE which is a requirement for Bachelor of Arts students. For Sociology Majors, it consists of the following:

- 6 HRS English (ENGL 1406, 1413/1423, 1213/1223)
- 6 HRS Language other than English (FRAN, SPAN, GERM, LATI, GREE)
NOTE: must be 6 hours of the same language
- 6 HRS Sociology (SOCI 1006 or any combination of 2 of: SOCI 1013, 1033, 1113 or WGST 1413)
- 6 HRS Humanities (ART [NOT ART 2013, 2023, 2113, 2123, 3013, 3023], CLAS, CREL, HIST, PHIL, MUSI OR WGST)
- 6 HRS Pure & Applied Science (BIOL, CHEM, COMP, APSC, ENVS, MATH, NUTR, PHYS, or PSYC)

Your 1st year course breakdown would basically look like this:

Fall Semester:	Winter Semester:
English *	English *
Language other than English	Language other than English
Sociology 	Sociology **
Humanities	Humanities
Pure & Applied Science	Pure & Applied Science

* If there is any chance that you will want to take upper level ENGL courses, you should register for either ENGL 1406 or ENGL 1413 & ENGL 1423 as this is the prerequisite for further study in ENGL at Acadia University.

 As for your Intro SOCI, you need to take a total of 6 hours at the 1000-level in your first year. You should take 1006 (full year) or a combination of any 2 of the following 3-hour (half-year) courses: 1013, 1033, 1113 or WGST 1413.

Disclaimer:

Throughout this website and its subsidiary web properties, Acadia University, the Office of Communications and Public Affairs and stakeholders have made every attempt to ensure this information is prepared with care and accuracy. While we strive to maintain our web presence to be as accurate and up-to-date as possible, it is likely that some information may not be. In the event where information on this website is not correct, Acadia University accepts no responsibility for actions caused by misinformation contained in this website. In the case of an inconsistency, the general academic regulations contained in Acadia University's calendar prevail over the regulations of faculties, schools, and departments, and regulations of the faculties over those of departments. We encourage you to inquire within the appropriate department for the most up-to-date information.

SOCI 1006 INTRODUCTORY SOCIOLOGY

A general introduction to sociological thought. The basic forms of social structure and social process. Emphasis is placed on the nature and analysis of culture, group life, socialization, and the major social institutions in modern society.

SOCI 1013 INTRODUCTION TO CANADIAN SOCIETY

This course introduces sociological concepts, principles, and approaches through a focus on issues of relevance to Canadian society such as political economy, aboriginal rights, ethno-cultural diversity, and immigration, among others.

SOCI 1033 INTRODUCTION SOCI: SOCIAL PROBLEMS

This course introduces sociological concepts, principles and approaches through a focus on social problems in contemporary societies. Problems to be explored include but are not limited to: Consumerism, population growth, hunger, poverty, economic development, environment, disease, Indigenous groups and ethnic conflict, peasant protests and resistance, intimate violence, drug use, immigration and sexual orientation.

SOCI 1113 INTRODUCTION: CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY

As an introductory course in cultural anthropology, the course is intended to familiarize students with customs, beliefs, behaviours and institutions held by people throughout the world. Emphasis is placed on understanding and interpreting cultural behaviour, and the meanings humans assign to cultural phenomena, in order to facilitate communication and dialogue.

WGST1413 INTRODUCTION: WOMEN'S/GENDER STUDIES

As a general introduction to women's studies, this course will provide a multi-disciplinary focus on feminist principles and approaches to scholarship. Topics to be presented include, but are not limited to women's sexuality, the body and health, aging, socialization, economic and political roles, spirituality and women throughout history.